

INFO PACK #gender#art

11 / 17 -10-2018

MADRID

This project is an european training course between 18 youth workers. The participants come from Spain, France, Italy, Portugal, Lithuania, Slovenia, Turkey, Greece and Poland.

The project #gender#art is a meeting that will take place in Madrid with the aim to get together participants from with interest in the field of art-education.

Participants will meet thinking over how the concept of gender is conveyed through the art and how art can be used to convey a respectful vision of gender, without machismo. Those reflections will allow to share methods and work praxis to use art as a tool that promotes gender equality.

During the training course will be carried out different activities, among which: theater-dance workshops; Therapeutic photography and self-portrait; Round table with guest speakers; Visit the city and local organizations; intercultural party, meeting for planning future projects, and several evaluation sessions.
